WE DEDICATE THIS BOOK

To Mr. J. V. Fowler

For all he has done for Benhaven High School and the surrounding community, for always being friendly, for the fine example he has set for each of us, and for always cooperating in all activities.

FOREWORD

We, the staff of the Sand Spur, present the 1952 volume, so that in the years to come we may refer to its contents, and relive the happy hours of each day we spent together in work and play at our Alma Mater.

CLASS HISTORY

It's been four long and wonderful years and we now find ourselves all ready to receive a diploma. Makes us happy all over, doesn't it?

Do you remember in '48 when we first walked down the halls of B. H. S.? How we felt like one little fish out in a big pond? Yes, we were afraid, but we walked into this new ordeal with open eyes, and before many days, we were accustomed to our surroundings and were beginning to have fun. Through the year we had several parties at which the senior boys were our favorite guests.

After our usual summer vacation, our class got back into the school swing. Now, we had someone to be our underdog. Therefore, we were quite pleased with the way everything went that year. Some of the girls were elected waitresses at the Jr. & Sr. Banquet. Just think, we had only two years to go to reach our goal!

Our junior year found us living up to the title, "Jolly Juniors." This year stands out in our memory as quite an important one. Three girls and three boys received the honor of being marshals. Just before Christmas we were proud juniors. Our class rings had arrived and we were very happy. After sponsoring many different activities to raise money, we finally gave the seniors their long-awited banquet in the spring. It was a very successful one, in which we carried out "Western" as our theme. We were so happy together that we decided we would have picnics each month during the summer. Our vacation that summer was a delightful one.

Seniors! Yes, we had finally reached our goal. We were seniors now—"Dignified Seniors." We knew we were due certain senior privileges, but were not told when or what. We became anxious and on January 1, (1952), eight seniors skipped school. We thought we were starting the new year right, but found out later, when were were caught and punished for this action, we were not. After this ordeal we turned to our senior play, "Farm Folks." When presented, it was really a performance. A special highlight of the year was publishing our school newspaper, "The Haven." Another thrill was the beautiful Easter banquet given us by the juniors, which everyone enjoyed.

There will never be a class night as ours was. All of us were trying to be happy, when we knew it was so close to the end—the end of the first big chapter in our life.

We must put away all the happy memories and souvenirs of our Alma Mater and brave this new adventure that lies ahead.

JOAN ROSSER, Historian.

CLASS PROPHECY

OLD HOME DAY

It was the year of 1962 and as I walked along the streets of Olivia, everywhere I looked I saw huge posters which read: "Welcome Home, Class of 1952."

Many days before the invitations had gone out to all corners of our land, urging everyone to come.

At last the long awaited day arrived and as I entered the Auditorium back at our beloved Benhaven, a thrilling sight met my gaze, for there were the class-mates with whom I shared so many common memories.

Sitting on the front row was Katie Smith. As you probably know, Katie has just returned from a trip abroad. There she studied her beloved art under the most famous teachers. She has won much praise for her work.

Seated by her was an old friend of her's, Ellen Marks. Ellen is employed in a nearby town by the prominent lawyer, Hugh Tysinger. Mr. Tysinger is seriously considering becoming a candidate for the governorship in the coming election.

Farther down I saw the face of Jean Freeman. She has now been promoted to head nurse in the large modern hospital located in Swann Station.

Then I was looking into the face of one who needed no introduction because everyone is familiar with the world's most famous jet-pilot, Jodie Mason.

Next entered the successful business man, Jack Pierce. Jack now owns a chain of theatres over our state.

Seated near the piano was Adele Gales, who is employed at the new ladies store in Olivia. She is assistant to the head buyer for the firm, Joan Rosser. Joan has proved to be unusually talented in this field.

Next I greeted Mollie Hall. She was very much thrilled over the prospect of moving into her beautiful new home in Fort Bragg.

Then I met the glance of one of the state's outstanding farmers, Lee Marks, whose love for the land has brought him rich rewards.

Another late-comer was Joe Holmes. Joe is now one of the leading dentists of our time. Working with him is Mary Ragland who is very efficient.

Chatting with Helen McNeill who just recently finished writing the best-seller of the year, is Lorena Pace. Lorena is now Home Economics teacher in one of our leading women's colleges.

We were especially glad to welcome two servicemen to Old Home Day. Thomas Lee Coleman and Delano Castleberry. They have just returned from overseas duty with our occupation forces.

Seated beside the famous fashion model, Bette Taylor, was Gilbert Holder who made such a hit on Broadway. His voice is well-known throughout our land. Miss Taylor flew in from Dallas where she was modeling the new spring fashions.

Mary Ella Goins was there also. She is head librarian in one of our city libraries. Mary Ella loves her work, since she is very fond of books.

Carolyn Graham is now operator of the new restaurant in Olivia. Carolyn is a very able manager and her business is a very prosperous one.

Near Carolyn was seated Lois Hobson who is a beauty operator. She works in a famous Fifth Avenue Beauty Salon.

Then there was Mitzi Graham who is a very successful News Commentator. She is very well-known for her outstanding broadcasts of on-the-spot happenings all over the world.

It was a real pleasure to renew once again all the old friendships of yesteryear. As each tomorrow dawns these memories will always live in our hearts.

MITZI GRAHAM, Prophet.

LAST WILL AND TESTAMENT

We, the Seniors of 1952, being of sound mind, and in good health, morally, physically and mentally, do hereby make known our last Will and Testament.

1. To Mrs. Thompson and Miss Brown, we leave our appreciation for helping us publish "The Haven."
2. To Mrs. A. B. Cameron, we leave our appreciation for serving us two years as our home-room teacher.
3. To Mr. Harrington and the High School teachers, we of the Senior class are going to leave, with the hope that they will not miss us too much.
4. To the future seniors, we bequeath our studious ways, our dignified behaviour, the right to have at LEAST one clown on the class roll so that sounds of mirth will continue to issue from dullest of classes.

I, Jean Freeman, will my ability to get along with the teachers to Mae Howard.

I, Thomas Lee Coleman, will my ability to date a girl steady to Billy Kelly.

I, Joe Holmes, will my love for sports to Paul Spivey.

I, Carolyn Graham, will my ability to be a cheer leader to Rudine Pace.

I, Helen McNeill, will my long curly hair to Miss Brown.

I, Delano Castleberry, leave my ability to pester Mrs. A. B. Cameron to Melvin Rosser.

I, Jodie Mason, leave my brown corduroy hat to Mrs. Thompson.

I, Mitzi Graham, will my ability to be Miss Benhaven High to Corrine Roberts.

I, Ellen Marks, will my love for shorthand to Faye Graham.

I, Katie Smith, do hereby leave my funny-colored eyes to Billy Briggs.

I, Jack Pierce, do hereby leave my ability to drive Bus No. 68 to Vernon Wicker.

I, Lois Hobson, do hereby leave my loud ways to Edward McCormick.

I, Lorena Pace, do hereby leave my ability to sew to Nellie Waddell.

I, Betty Taylor, leave my love for Sanford to Violee Holder.

I, Gilbert Holder, do hereby leave my blonde hair to Louis McCormick.

I, Mary Ella Goins, do hereby leave my love for the Library Club to Christine Haire.

I, Joan Rosser, leave my ability to skip school to Barney Mansfield.

I, Mary Ragland, leave my ability to be Halloween Queen to Shirley Roberts.

I, Mollie Cameron Hall, will my ability to get married to anyone who can do as well.

I, Adele Gales, leave my love for Glee Club to Olga Mae Patterson.

I, Hugh Tysinger, will my love for Mrs. A. B. Cameron to Jerry Womack.

In witness whereof, we do set our hand and seal, this the nineteenth day of May, nineteen hundred fifty - two.

CAROLYN GRAHAM, Testator.
